

9th UNICA GREEN Workshop

More sustainable lifestyles – What role can universities play?

6-8 March 2019

University of Lausanne (UNIL), Lausanne, Switzerland

Wednesday, 6 March 2019

10:00 – 15:30	Meeting of the UNICA GREEN Core Group (Core Group members only) Including lunch Amhipole, room 318
16:30 -17:00	Registration and welcome coffee Amphimax, in front of room 414
Session 1: Opening of the 9th UNICA Green workshop Amphimax, room 414
17:00 -17:20	Opening by Nouria Hernandez, Rector of UNIL and Benoît Frund, Vice-Rector in charge of Sustainability and Campus management, UNIL
17:20– 19:00	What is a sustainable lifestyle and how change towards it – A conceptual approach, by Christian Arnsperger, UNIL
	Tim Jackson TBC / Kate Raworth TBC / Harald Welzer TBC
19:00-19:15	“Green your University” Award Ceremony The “Green your University Award” project will be presented OR the winner will present its project
19:15 - ...	Dinner aperitif

Thursday, 7 March 2019

Session 2: Good Practices exchange

Amphimax, room 414

8:00 – 8:30	Good Morning Coffee
8:30-9:15	A Transition to Sustainable Lifestyles – The Role of Universities , by Bojan Baletic, University of Zagreb
09:15 -10:15	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mapping university’s activities according to SDG, by Christine Bratrach, ETH Zürich• Act for Change, studying the long-term impact of an awareness campaign based on gaming theory, by Aurore Nembrini, EPFL Lausanne
10:15 – 10:30	Break
10:30 – 12:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Cooperation of universities with other societal actors to support Education for Sustainable Consumption, by Jana Dlouhá, Environment Centre, Charles University in Prague• The Climate House project, by Katinka Grønli, University of Oslo• Energy awareness campaign based on participative process - results and outcomes, by Loïc Furcy, UNIL• 10 years of vegetarian menza – Assessing feedback, by Freie Universität Berlin TBC• 6 E’s for sustainable change: positive psychology in sustainable awareness and behavior change, by Cathy Macharis, Vrije Universiteit Brussel TBC
12:30- 13:30	Lunch
Session 3: Changing Behaviour
Amphimax, room 414
13:30 -14:00	Applying sobriety policy in Zürich , by Tina Billeter, City of Zürich To achieve its energy objectives, the City of Zurich has implemented a policy of sobriety since 2010. Tina Billeter presents the content of this policy, the barriers and opportunities encountered in its implementation, and how it could also be applied in universities.

14:00 – 17:30	Changing people behaviour: another approach, by Yves François and Jeremy Grivel, aXess Lab, Vevey aXess is a consultant agency specialized in behaviour change strategies. It uses scientific data from neuroscience and social psychology to help institutions to bring about change without imposing it.
17:30 – 19:00	Social program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Visit of photo exhibitions of Sustainability Week • Walk on the campus of UNIL • Visit of the Rolex learning Center, EPFL, with Axess Lab TBC • Experimenting science mediation at UNIL, l’Eprouvette
19:00 - 19:30	Transport
19:30 - 22:30	Dinner at the Castel de Bois Genoud, Crissier
22:30	Return to the campus and the city

Friday, 8 March 2019

Session 4: Changing behaviour

Amphimax, room 414

8:00 - 8:30	Good Morning Coffee
8:30 -10:30	Changing people behaviour: another approach aXess Lab, Vevey Based on theoretical aspects explained the day before, participants will be invited to reflect on practical cases (among them, the case of the future student’s housing building of UNIL).
10:30-10:45	Coffee Break

Session 5: Parallel sessions

Amphipole, rooms 338 - 340.1 -342

10:45-12:15	Session 5.1: Sustainable Governance: Sociocracy by LaMoViDA, University of Lausanne LaMoViDA (Laboratory for Sustainable and Alternative Lifestyles) is an active student association of UNIL carrying out a project aimed at the construction of an eco-place for housing, research and learning. The governance of this eco-place intends to be based upon sociocracy’s principles. Through this workshop, LaMoViDA will introduce the participants to this system of governance and make them reflect on how it can be applied in the project.
-------------	---

10:45-12:15	Session 5.2: Student-centered session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SAVES 2 Project, by Joanna Romanowicz, NUS UK • ESSA Project, by Rachel Drayson, NUS UK • “Green Your University Award” winner presents its project TBC • Presentation of Swiss Sustainability week, by Marie-Claire Graf, VSN-FDD-FSS This session is integrated to the program of the sustainability week of UNIL This session aims at gathering together students from UNIL, EPFL, Switzerland and UK in order to present a diversity of projects and foster exchanges on students’ actions in sustainability on their campus and outside.
10:45-12:15	Session 5.3: UNIL Sustainability center, by Nelly Niwa, University of Lausanne UNIL is about to launch an interdisciplinary platform on sustainability that aims at building a network of teachers and researchers wishing to better integrate this topic in their teaching and research. Nelly Niwa, the Director of the UNIL Sustainability center, animates this workshop in order to present the initiative and gather input on the project from the participants.
10:45-12:15	Session 4: Sustainable rebound after the Genoa bridge collapse: PRINCE Project, by Luca Moreschi, University of Genoa The PRINCE project is an experimental programme started in 2018 to encourage sustainable mobility after the collapse of Genoa Bridge. The research team of the University of Genoa will trace the students’ mobility and map their journey to reach the campus. Considering these data, several incentives will be made in order to encourage students to maintain sustainable commuting habits. Luca Moreschi will present more in details the project and gather good ideas from the participants in order to enrich this recently launched project.
10:45-12:15	Session 5.5: Reflecting about professional mobility TBC, by Julien Meillard, UNIL More and more universities acknowledge the impact of business travel, especially those undertaken by researchers. Julien Meillard, Head of UNIL's mobility plan, will lead this session during which participants will be able to share good practices from universities concerning this challenge and reflect together on the implementation of a professional mobility policy.
12:15-13:00	Closing of the workshop by the UNICA GREEN Chairs by Rebecca Lefevere and Benoît Frund What future steps for UNICA GREEN? by Bojan Baletic, University of Zagreb
13:00-14:00	Farewell lunch
14:30 -16:30	Wrap-up (Core Group members only)