9th UNICA Scholarly Communication Seminar
14 - 15 October 2019
Vilnius University, Lithuania

Academic Libraries & Open Science: how to meet the challenges?

Programme

Visit our website for programme and confirmed speakers!

Hosted by:
Venue: Aula Parva, Historical Campus of University, Universiteto str.3

MONDAY 14 October 2019

CHAIR : Rimantas Jankauskas, Pro-Rector for Research, Vilnius University

8:30-9:15  Registration
Venue: Foyer at Aula Parva

9:15-9:30  Welcome address

9:30-10:00  Keynote by JEAN-FRANÇOIS DECHAMP
Open Access Policy Officer, EC DG Research & Innovation, Unit G.4 Open Science

10:00-10:30  Coffee break

SESSION 1

Open Science Strategy Building
Chair: JOSÉ MOURA, Professor, NOVA School of Science and Technology | NOVA University Lisbon

10:30-10:50  Open Science strategy building in Lithuania
- RIMANTAS JANKAUSKAS, Professor, Faculty of Medicine | Vilnius University

- JEANNETTE FREY, LIBER President

11:10-11:30  The Open Science Strategy of Berlin Universities and Research Institutions
- ANDREAS DEGKWITZ, Chief Librarian, Humboldt University of Berlin

11:30-12:00  Q&A

12:00-1:00  Lunch

SESSION 2

The library, vector of change towards Open Science
Chair: MARIJA PROKOPČÍK, Director for Information Services Department, Research and Cultural Heritage
Vilnius University Library

1:00-2:00  From the point of view of a researcher: URTĖ NENIŠKYTĖ, Life Sciences Centre | Vilnius University
From the point of view of a librarian: MARIA SEISSL, Head of Library and Archive Services, University of Vienna

From the point of view of a research administration officer: DIANA PUSTULA, Head of Office of International Research and Liaison, University of Warsaw

From the point of view of a University Press manager: CHRISTINA LENZ, Managing Editor, Stockholm University Press

From the point of view of PhD candidates: DOVILE KURPYTE, Vilnius Gediminas Technical University

2:00-2:30 Q&A

2:30-3:00 coffee break

SESSION 3

Research data management in libraries

Chair: FRANÇOISE VANDOOREN, Research Support Coordinator, Department of Libraries and Scientific Information | Université Libre de Bruxelles

3:00-3:20 Research Data Support

• ROBIN RICE, Data Librarian & Head of Research Data Support Services, University of Edinburgh

3:20-3:40 Open Science Training

• IRYNA KUCHMA, EIFL-OA Coordinator, Vilnius

3:40-4:00 The Data Support Network in University of Helsinki

• PALVI KAIPONEN, Service Director, Research Services, Helsinki University Library

4:00-4:30 Q&A

4:30-5:30 Visit of the Historical Library

19:00 DINNER

Venue: Cafeteria Faculty of History, Universiteto str.7
TUESDAY October 2019

CHAIR : Rimantas Jankauskas, Pro-Rector for Research, Vilnius University

9:00-9:30 KEYNOTE: Open is not enough: towards innovative, equititative and sustainable scholarly communication

• ELOY RODRIGUES, Director, University of Minho Libraries, Portugal

SESSION 4

Balancing forces on the publication market

Chair: ANDREAS DEGKWITZ, Chief Librarian, Humboldt University Berlin

9:30-9:50 The strategy of Swedish universities regarding the transition to open access

• WILHELM WIDMARK, Library Director, Stockholm University

9:50-10:10 Transition to open access for journals and monographs in Germany

• DIRK PIEPER, Library Deputy Director, Bielefeld University

10:10-10:30 The EUA point of view

• LENNART STOY, Project Manager, Research & Innovation, EUA

10:30-11:00 Q&A

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

SESSION 5

Speakers’ corner: share your experience!

Chair: RIMANTAS JANKAUSKAS, Pro-Rector for Research, Vilnius University

11:30-12:30

• “Open Access at University of Cyprus”
  by Elena Diomidi-Parpouna, Acting Library Director, University of Cyprus

• “Library as a marketer of the Responsible Research Program in the University of Oulu”
  by Pekka Olsbo, Oulu University Library

• “Activities connected to Open Access are performed by Central Library and Department of Science and Research of Charles University”
  by Radka Římanová, Director of Central Library of Charles University & Lucie Panchártek Suchá, head of e-resources, Central Library of Charles University

• “A Board Game as an Attractive Tool for Promoting Open Science”
  By Lina Saladžiuvienė, Head of Information and Data Division, Vilnius University Library

12:30-1:30 Lunch
SESSION 6

Library and university press collaborations

Chair: Arūnas Gudinavičius, director of Vilnius University Press

1:30-3:00

- “Relationship vs Organisational Marriage between Press and Library” by Arūnas Gudinavičius, Managing director of Vilnius University Press

- “What are the benefits for a University Press being part of the library structure and how do university presses meet the challenges of open science?” by Christina Lenz, Managing Editor of books at Stockholm University Press

- “Library and UP: Embracing a common future at Université libre de Bruxelles” by Emilie Menz, Publishing director at ULB press and Françoise Vandooren, Library research support coordinator, Université libre de Bruxelles.

- “UNIVERSITY JOURNALS. An open access publishing platform: owned by universities, linked to repositories.” by Max Haring, Library, project and Innovation, University of Amsterdam

- Q&A

3:00-3:30 Closing of the seminar

3:30 Visit of the new library and farewell drink

For updates & additional information on the event, please visit UNICA’s website.

http://www.unica-network.eu/event/9th-scholarly-communication-seminar