

Ankara University, Turkey

Ankara University is one of the oldest, biggest and prestigious Universities in Turkey with 67.000 students, 4200 academic staff and 7500 non-academic staff. It has rich history of education dating back to mid-1800's and continues to be one of oldest and eminent universities acting as a leader in the academic arena.

It is a research intensive university that organizes study programs and scientific research in the fields of Science, Health and Social Sciences with 18 faculties, 13 Graduate schools, 10 Vocational Schools, 1 State Conservatory, 1 College of Foreign Languages. Many programs are in English and students are offered the opportunity to pursue a full academic path by attending Bachelor's, Master's, Doctoral and Postdoctoral study programs.

It is a city university with 7 main campuses and located in various districts of Ankara. The University has promoted more than 650 Erasmus agreements with almost 300 partner institutions for study and research activities. There are international partnerships with 150+ Universities and Networks for the research activities and collaborations. The University has about 4,000 international students from over 95 countries around the globe.

In the last 50 years, Ankara University had a great development in the area of education and research. We believe making and "European University Alliance" helps to build academic and research freedom and democratization of education, puts students at the center, allows collaboration in an interdisciplinary approach, research excellence, creativity, openness, integrity and internationalization. Ankara University guides the society in the fields of science and arts through a universal perspective, and to contribute to the production of science, technology with qualified research

Ankara University has offered open access to all student programs. We believe it is important to integrate authentic, reflective and collaborative learning experiences in student-centered learning. The Distance Education Center provides and associate degree, undergraduate and graduate education activities carried out with distance education technologies. There are more than 60 English taught under-graduate and graduate programs and courses in Ankara University. "<http://bbs.ankara.edu.tr>" with this link all the detailed information of the Programs of Ankara University can be obtained

Ankara University can take a part in a European Universities alliance or we can create an alliance together with partner universities. Please contact us for further information (sibel@pharmacy.ankara.edu.tr).