"beacons of the Information Society, illuminating the courses to development, prosperity and freedom. Information literacy empowers people in all walks of life to seek, evaluate, use and create information effectively to achieve their personal, social, occupational and educational goals. It is a basic human right in a digital world and promotes social inclusion in all nations."
Transversal skills

- Transversal skills and competences are relevant to a broad range of occupations and sectors.
- They are often referred to as core skills, basic skills or soft skills, the cornerstone for the personal development of a person.
- Transversal skills and competences are the building blocks for the development of the "hard" skills and competences required to succeed on the labor market*

*According to classification of European Skills, Competences, Qualifications and Occupations (ESCO) - https://ec.europa.eu/esco/portal/browse?type=Skill
Transversal Skills - transversal skills refer to a number of important competencies that can be learned and that everyone requires to successfully adapt to changes and to lead meaningful and productive lives*
