The Schengen Peace Foundation was initiated in 2005 as a not-for-profit charity approved by His Royal Highness Henri the Grand Duke of Luxembourg on Oct 19th, 2007. The Foundation contributes to the construction of a more peaceful world by promoting peace, tolerance and understanding through multicultural dialogue with the help of discussions, publications, exhibits and workshops, internet platforms, encounters, exchange and education programs as well as studies about peace. <https://schengenpeacefoundation.org/>

The main projects of the Schengen Peace Foundation:

World Peace Forum gathers scholars, peace activists, executives, journalists, students, religious leaders, and politicians, as well as any citizen having an interest in participating. The annual forum is done with cooperation with local partners and has been held in Schengen, France, Romania, Brazil, Jordan, Canada and next will be Columbia. www.WorldPeaceForum.org

Youth World Peace Forum works with other organisations to provide peace training and methods for education and workshops and camps for children from age 3 to 23 to help build a culture of peace.

The Luxembourg Peace Prize honors the outstanding in the field of peace. The categories of the Luxembourg Peace Prize and their celebration amplify the aims and goals of the World Peace Forum. www.LuxembourgPeacePrize.org
