

universität
wien

Case Study of the University of Vienna

UNICA Meeting for EU Research Liaison Officers
Stockholm, 20 — 21 October, 2011

Helmut Schaschl
Research Services & International Relations

At the University of Vienna, Research Services

- Research Support:

2 persons full-time (1,0 fte) and 2 persons (0,5 fte) for FP7 and all other national and international funding schemes.

- Legal Support:

1 person 1,0 fte, 2 persons 0,5 fte

(3331 fte – researcher at the University!)

in a nutshell

- Major EU Focus: ERC, Marie Curie

but support for Cooperation and Capacity is available but rather on a basic level.

Marie Curie – ITN (FP7-PEOPLE-ITN)

- Currently, the University of Vienna hosts 12 ITN projects; 5 of these projects are coordinated by the University.
(Projects in different research fields; social science, physics, meteorology & climate research, biology and biochemistry).

Support at the University for ITN projects

Pre Award Services:

- financial support to initiate an ITN
- advice/proposal check
- support in negotiations

Post Award Services:

- application forms, contract preparation forms
and grant agreement
- legal support/consortium agreement
- amendments

Support at the University for ITN projects

- Support during the life-cycle of a project

advise and support during reporting financial management support

universität
wien

Thanks

Contact:

helmut.schaschl@univie.ac.at

<http://forschung.univie.ac.at/>