Social programme on Saturday, May 29th 2010 Medieval Tallinn – history, culture, art

The tour begins with a coach trip to the historical Rottermann quarter that is situated in the very heart of Tallinn. This compact industrial district which in the beginning produced construction materials is a unique place for its architecture. From there the tour will continue to the Kadriorg Park, the main recreation area of Tallinn, founded by Peter the Great in honour of his wife Catherine. You will walk through the park to a beautiful baroque palace – once the summer residence of the Russian czars, now the Museum of European Art. After the visit to the Upper Garden you will return to the coach. The next stop will be on the Song Festival Grounds, where the famous Estonian song festivals held since 1869 take place – a splendid view over the sea and the Old Town of Tallinn and a marvellous place for a photo stop. The tour continues to the Pirita suburb, with the ruins of the St. Birgitta's Convent from the 16th century. The tour passes the yachting complex built for the 1980 Olympic Regatta. The bus tour will end in the city centre, close to the Old Town.

Exclusive programme, Behind the Hidden Doors

The programme is combined from two performances: the Torch Tour on the Town Wall (During the tour you will visit a medieval merchants house, a Town Wall tower, walk on the Town Wall on the west side and also view the Field of Towers.
