

"Cultural Heritage Management: Archaeology, architecture and urban planning"

Summer School in Athens and Kea
(Cyclades, Aegean Sea),

8–26 June 2015

Dr.Dionysis Mourelatos

National and Kapodistrian University of Athens

Postgraduate programme "Cultural Heritage Management: Archaeology, architecture and urban planning"

- Faculty of History & Archaeology, University of Athens
- Department of Architecture, University of Patras,
- Department of Cultural Technology & Communication, University of the Aegean

- Archaeology and History of Art (18 hours)
- History of Art and Architecture (with special modules on Greek prehistory, Classical times, Byzantium, Modern Art & Architecture)
- Archaeological fieldwork techniques and methods
- Computer applications in archaeology
-
- Architecture-Urban Planning-Restoration (18 hours)
- Theory of Architecture
- Urban theory
- Theory and techniques of restoration
-
- Cultural Management (18 hours)
- Introduction to cultural heritage management
- Cultural heritage management, and New Technologies
- Cultural economics
- Cultural Heritage and the Law

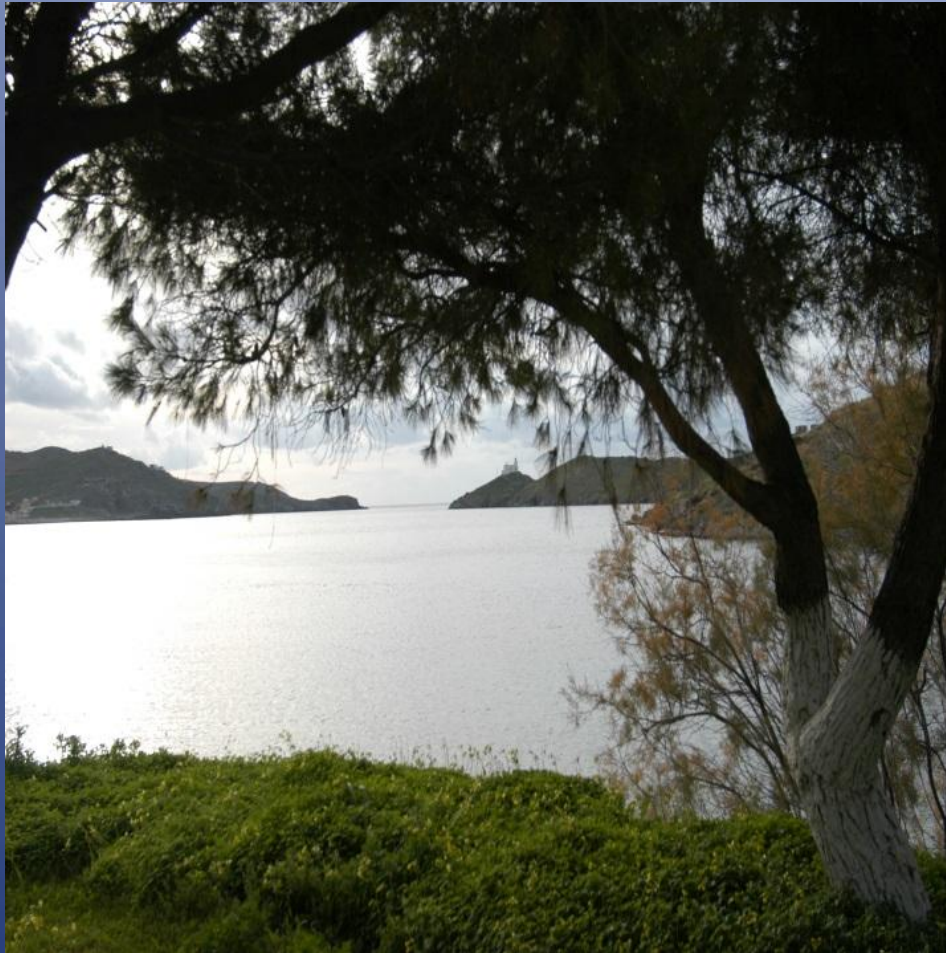

Thank you for your attention