

Damiano Pinnacchio

International Relations Office Coordinator

University of Rome Tor Vergata

Email: damiano.pinnacchio@uniroma2.it

Ph.: +39 06 7259 2556

Mob.: +39 366 6048648

CURRICULUM VITAE

Damiano is a coordinator of the International Relations Office at University of Rome Tor Vergata, Italy. With a background in economics, he gained an experience over fifteen years of progressively growing responsibilities in the international cooperation fields. He was member of many working groups (and coordinate some of them) that developed joint projects in education and research, in partnership with Institutions located in Africa, Asia, East Europe, Latin America and Russia. In his job position, has been leading the international cooperation agreements with foreign universities and institutions. He was one of a group member that fostered the process of internazionalization at home, the development of curricula in English as well as a development of dual degree programs and mobility for students and academics incoming and outgoing. As representative of his University he is active member and participate in the meetings of many international network (as APAIE, EAIE, UNICA, Coimbra Group of Brazil, EUA, BRICS, YERUN and others) as well as projects' referent of Erasmus Mundus as Techno I and II, Ibrasil, Bemundus and others. He has been active in the EAIE community and for the period 2018/2020 he has been elected as a member of the EAIE Expert Community Cooperation for Development.

Education

- PhD in Management – Banking and Finance track (onwards)
- Master in European Economy and International Finance
- MSc in Economics, specialization in Institutions and Financial Markets
- Training courses in mediation, team building, leadership and management, European program management