Re: Recommendation Letter - Representation in Steering Committee - elections 2019

Esteemed President Saso,
Dear Professor,

I am writing for the UNICA Steering Committee elections 2019.

As the Rector of the Université libre de Bruxelles, I am pleased to write this letter as my unreserved support for the candidacy of Vice-Rector Costreie of the University of Bucharest. This is an endorsement for his nomination to 2019 UNICA Steering Committee member election, which will take place at the UNICA General Assembly at King's College London, on 28-29 November 2019.

I learned to know about Professor Costreie during our preparatory meetings for the EU call for European Universities, and I may testify about his commitment, integrity and efficiency. He is also a hard worker and has shown a great sense of the added value of European inter-university cooperation, a great interest for networking, collaboration and I am sure he will contribute actively to UNICA activities and administration.

I am thus convinced that Professor Costreie will prove to be a valuable member of the Steering Committee. I hope to have informed you sufficiently. I remain at your disposal for more information if needed.

Sincerely Yours,

To whom it may concern,

As the Rector of Autonomous University of Madrid, I am please to write a reference letter for Sorin Costreie, the Vice-Rector of the University of Bucharest, as an endorsement for his nomination to 2019 UNICA Steering Committee member election, which will take place at the UNICA General Assembly at King's College London, on 28-29 November 2019.

Prof. Costreie scientific activity in philosophy is focused on the very interesting field of mathematical cognition and critical thinking. He has also a vast experience in HE management through his different positions not only at his University but also as Advisor to the Minister and State Secretary in the Ministry of Education and Scientific Research. I truly believe that his contributions to UNICA as member of the Steering Comitee will be highly valuable.

Sincerely Yours,

Prof. Rafael Garesse
