

UAN & Agenda 2030.
A perspective from the International Office
Sandra Guarín Tarquino

Scopus® 2nd young Colombian University in scientific production at Scopus2021

7th Colombian University in the ScimagoIR innovation ranking, 2021

Top 9 among Colombian universities present in the 2020 webometrics Ranking

Top 11 among the best Colombian universities in the Times Higher Education LATAM2020

Scopus® Top 19 among the Colombian universities with the highest scientific production in the country, Scopus2020

Top 24 among Colombian universities present in the QS Ranking

1. UAN Overview

Caribbean Region
 Puerto Colombia, Cartagena, Riohacha, Santa Marta and Valledupar

Andean Region
 Bogotá, Bucaramanga, Cúcuta, Duitama, Ibagué, Medellín, Neiva and Tunja

Coffee Region
 Armenia, Manizales and Pereira

Pacific Region
 Buenaventura, Buga, Cali, Cartago, Palmira, Pasto, Popayán, Quibdó and Roldanillo.

Eastern Region
 Villavicencio

31
 Campuses

26
 Cities

2. UAN comprehensive model for Agenda 2030

Some indicators - IZN and SDGs

UAN
Universidad
Antonio Nariño

GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT
A global experience for all

3. IZN and Agenda 2030

- Funding to support the IZN process
- Funding to support the local community
- Diversity, Equity and Inclusion initiatives

- Global Learning Outcomes
- Proportion of international students in programs on sustainability (undergraduate, graduate and lifelong learning programs)
- Subjects, short courses with international collaboration on sustainable development.

- Women's leadership at the international management level.
- Encourage women in IZN calls where they are underrepresented.
- Women in IZN programs

- Institutional efforts to reduce the carbon footprint
- E-mobility

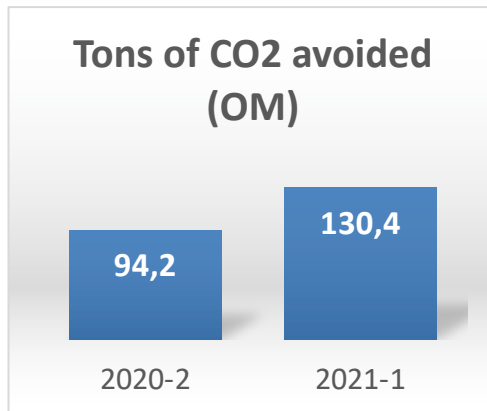

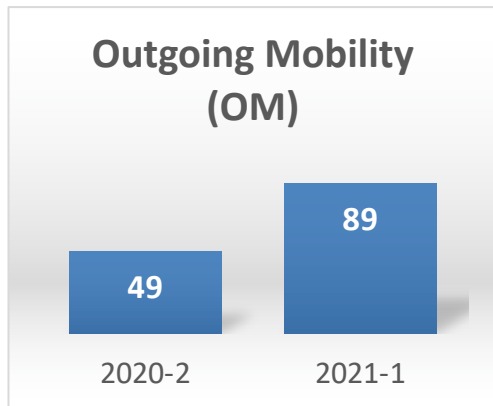

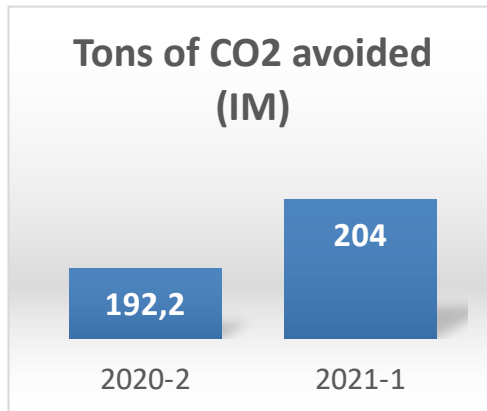

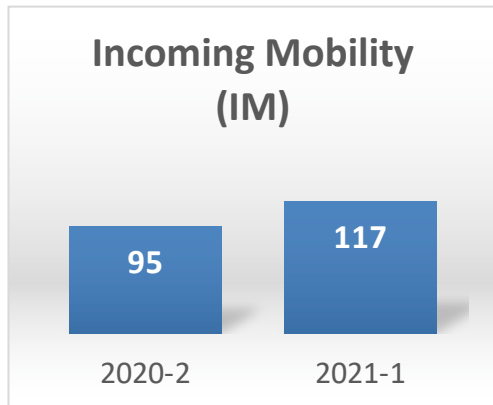

- International collaboration to collect data for the SDGs.
- Collaboration to improve international practices to address the SDGs.
- Collaboration with NGOs.
- Promote intersectoral dialogue on the SDGs (government, HEIs, civil society).
- Results of participation in international projects that contribute to the SDGs.

3. IZN and Agenda 2030

UAN Mobilize Online

Associations and networks: Global, regional and national levels

17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

International Office (IO) contributions

Cooperation projects that contribute to the SDGs supported/implemented by IO (2019-2021)

4. Final Remarks

- ✓ SDGs & IZN.
- ✓ New Global Engagement priorities.
- ✓ Strategic tool for the 2030 Agenda: The relational capital and expertise of IOs.
- ✓ Impacting communities through IZN: challenge and a responsibility of the HEIs' leaders.