Citizen Engagement Cluster

- Main objectives

- Define common grounding principles and standards for Citizen Science in Una Europa
- Analyse barriers for enhancing the role of Citizen Science in the research activities of Una Europa and brainstorm on possible solutions
- Define the priorities for the pilot action
- Envision possible forms of cooperation for the pilot action
- Provide recommendations for Research & Innovation Strategy

Citizen Engagement Cluster

- Activities

Benchmarking

- Mapping of Citizen Engagement institutional strategies and policies
- Mapping of Citizen Science support activities/frameworks/services within Una Europa institutions

Brainstorming sessions

- A series of webinars on Citizen Science projects
- A co-creation workshop for sharing expertise, practices and difficulties, and how these can be overcome in the context of the alliance

Enhancing Citizen Science in Una Europa: What are the needs?

Providing
technical support/tools

Integrating of citizen science in the institutional
strategy/policies

Suggesting relevant funding schemes

methodological
support/tools

Providing relevant training opportunities

Ensuring recognition and valorisation

Providing contacts with communities and associated partners

Raising of interest from different disciplines

Providing a working space

Ensuring visibility

Building capacities in accompanying Citizen Science projects for research support services

Etc.

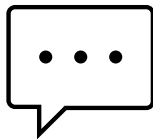

What are the priorities for the pilot action?

Una Europa Citizen Science toolkit

- 3 main actions

Ruxandra Stoica,
University of Edinburg

Antje Wilton, Free
University of Berlin

Eljas Oksanen,
University of Helsinki

Introduction.
Could you
introduce yourself
and your project?

Project design and funding scheme

Engaging the citizens

Francesca Sabatini, University of Bologna

Kinga Anna Gajda, Jagiellonian University

Hanne Vrebos, KU
Leuven

Role of the citizens

Barriers and enablers

Impact and sustainability

Institutional
support and recognition

Advice/potential of citizen science

Fabrice Langrognet,
Paris 1, CNRS, Oxford university

Alicia Castillo Mena, Complutense University of Madrid

What is the potential?

Synergies with other Una Europa actions

How can the European Universities support Citizen Science?

Thank you for the attention!
