1. EUTOPIA Certificate of Internationalisation EUCI

- Recognising students' international engagement and learning;
- An exciting opportunity for early-career researchers wishing to develop their teaching profile and international network

The numbers:

From 2021 until 2025 there were 390 participants, 175 portfolios and 173 certificates awarded

2. Who is EUCI for?

Students who have participated in:

- Activities within the EUTOPIA alliance
- International exchanges
- Foreign language learning
- International activities at their home institution

3. How does it work?

Participate → Reflect → Create → Receive recognition

- Attend the required 4 online seminars (90 minutes)
- Reflect on international experiences with tutor guidance
- Create and submit a portfolio with reflective and intercultural outcomes
- Receive the certificate following a positive assessment

4. Guided Reflection

Online seminars supported by tutors

- Explore and reflect on international experiences
- Receive guidance for developing a portfolio
- Tutors from the University of Ljubljana, the University of Warwick and Stellenbosch University – so far

5. The Portfolio

Presenting and reflecting on international learning

Possible formats include:

- An essay (2000 words)
- A video presentation
- Another portfolio format (poem, painting…)

Tutors assess the portfolio against the required criteria. A positive assessment is necessary to receive the certificate.

6. Recognition

Making international engagement visible

- Successful students receive the EUCI certificate
- Each institution is expected to recognise the certificate
- Recognition is most commonly recorded in the Diploma Supplement
- The certificate does not carry academic credits
- Open badge can be awarded
